St. Michael's Printshop Introduces:
The Anne Meredith Barry Memorial Press

This top of the line Tackach 18"x36" tabletop press is available to St. Michael's members who wish to use it for education and outreach projects. This is a great opportunity for art teachers and visual artists to teach printmaking in schools and in communities throughout the province. We will provide the press free of charge in the name of education and raising awareness of original printmaking.

Along with the press we can provide:

- Printing felts
- Support table
- A selection of etching tools

Proposals will be reviewed on an ongoing basis from schools, arts organizations and individuals.

Please contact staff to discuss bookings and transport options.
